

Media Release

Contact: Kimberly Blackford
651/451-7834

Date: December 2, 2008

TOWN SQUARE TELEVISION ANNOUNCES ITS 2008 COMMUNITY TELEVISION VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Town Square Television is proud to announce that John Fonseca has received the 2008 Community Television Volunteer of the Year Award. John was chosen for this award because of the many hours of time he has dedicated and the talents he brings to helping the staff at Town Square Television with productions.

John has helped out with many productions such as SportsZone, Girl Talk, Election Coverage, Mobile Truck events, and many more.

“John has been great for us this past year. He’s helped out on almost every game we covered in 2008 no matter if it was hot, cold, raining, or snowing, and including a few games when he was the only other person on the crew,” says Toby Stanga, Sports and Mobile Production Coordinator, Town Square Television.

To learn about volunteer opportunities at Town Square Television, please visit www.townsquare.tv

Town Square Television is a non-profit organization producing local television programs and providing access to video production equipment, training, and cable television channel time for community members who wish to televise their own programs. Town Square Television channels are 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, and 21 and can be viewed by over 21,000 cable television households in its seven member cities. Much more information is available at the new and improved www.townsquare.tv.